CALL FOR NURSES!

- Sign up to participate in Stanford's RITE Program -

What is the RITE Program?

- Realizing Improvement through Team Empowerment (RITE)
- An interdisciplinary team and project-based training program focused on achieving meaningful quality improvement initiatives
- Encompasses a 5-month program with instructor led sessions every other week
- Participants will gain practical knowledge in quality improvement and project management, and participate in an approved enterprise-wide QI project

Qualifications for Support from ORPCS:

- Must have > 2 years of bedside clinician experience
- Worked at Stanford Health Care > 1 year
- At least 1 year of experience on current unit
- Employed > 0.5 FTE as clinical personnel
- Must have management support and clearance to participate

Application deadline is March 10th!

NOTE: Time commitment varies, but it is expected that at least 30+ hours of project time in addition to class time will be needed outside of work hours for 5 months. Programs occur every 5 months. Participants will be paid at their base hourly rate not exceeding 40 hours per week.*

If you are interested in participating in the RITE Program with the Office of Research at Stanford Health Care, please apply: www.orpcs.org/RITE.

If you have any questions please email:

Research@stanfordhealthcare.org.

Stanford HEALTH CARE
STANFORD MEDICINE

RITE Program Call for Nurses www.orpcs.org/RITE